Travel with OLLI - a lifetime of learning and exploring!

SVSU - Osher Lifelong Learning Institute

Join OLLI on this food & wine themed adventure!

Similar to the boot it's shaped like, Italy keeps its "soul" on the bottom. Just think of the corner cafes, where you only hear conversations in Italian. When you feast on sfogliatella pastries with a side Primitivo wine, you'll get a taste for recipes that have been passed down from one generation to the next. Everywhere you look on this small group food & wine tour, you'll find that even though times change, some things stay the same.

Included Highlights:

- Food of Naples Walking Tour
- Basilica of Santa Chiara
- Benevento's Roman Theatre
- Olive Oil Tasting
- Agriturismo Cooking Class
- Food of Bari Walking Tour

On this OLLI trip, we will be staying in an agriturismo for 4 nights in Itria Valley Countryside (Days 4-7). Staying at an agriturismo in Italy is one of the most authentic, off-the-beaten-path experiences you can have. This farm stay will give you an up-close look at local life in the Italian countryside, where farmers, chefs, and artisans serve up some of the country's most important regional products. Think: extra virgin olive oil, wine, seasonal vegetables, handmade pasta dishes, and more. Included in your agriturismo's experience will be cooking classes, wine tasting classes, and learning about the olive oil production.

Optional Excursions:

Customize your tour by adding excursion options.

Day 3: A Naples Tradition: Neapolitan Pizza $79 pp

(3 hours, departs in the afternoon)

Visit one of Naples' most famous pizzerias for a demonstration of the local art of pizza making—and a tasting of the final product, of course. Pizza as we know it today was born in Neapolitan peasant towns in the late 18th century, nearly 200 years after explorers brought tomatoes back from the New World. Lucky for pizza lovers, the fruit finally made its way onto rustic, yeast-based flatbreads. The new creation drew tourists into the poorer areas of the town just for a taste—and this tradition of quality and freshness still reigns supreme in Neapolitan kitchens.

Day 9: Amalfi Coast Boat Ride: Amalfi, Positano, & Minori $99 pp

(8 hours)

Italy is filled with plenty of iconic locales, but the Amalfi Coast holds a special place in many hearts. First, it's incredibly walkable (and beautiful!). But, the terraced cliffs and candy-colored villas clinging to the slopes really seal the deal. The scent of lemons growing in the groves and views of the sparkling sea certainly don't hurt either. See what we mean as you begin the day with a scenic drive along the coast to the town of Amalfi. A local guide will lead you through this historic town, which sits along dramatic, steep cliffsides. You'll also have the option to take a self-guided tour of the Duomo, the centerpiece of the town. Amalfi started making paper in the first half of the 12th century, so be sure to stop by a shop to pick up a paper souvenir. You can walk to the original paper mill that's still standing today! Then, hop aboard a speedboat and cruise in style along the Amalfi Coast to the cliffside village of Positano. This quintessential Italian village is home to many charming restaurants and shops, and you'll have free time to explore the area. Be sure to stop by the beach and snap a photo of the colorful villas overlooking the Tyrrhenian Sea. Hop back aboard the speedboat and continue along the Amalfi Coast to the seaside town of Minori. Stop at a local pastry shop called Pasticceria Sal De Riso to sample delizia al limone, a traditional Amalfi Coast lemon cake. End the day with a bus trip back to your hotel. Please note: The private speedboat transfer is weather-dependent and runs from March–October. When the speedboat ride is not possible, you'll travel back to the hotel by bus.

I understand that travel can involve inconvenience and risk, including, but not limited to, sickness, diseases, forces of nature, geographic and climatic conditions, different hygienic standards, infrastructure problems (including road maintenance, transportation delays and accommodation condition), civil unrest, vandalism, crime, political instability and terrorism. Medical services or facilities may not be readily available or available at all during all or a portion of the tour and, if available, may not be equal to standards in my home location or home country. I further understand that travel in other nations is not similar to travel in the United States and that different parts of the world present unique health, disease, and safety concerns, and I agree to review any specific risks related to my destination by visiting the Centers for Disease Control and Prevention's Traveler's Health website at www.cdc.gov/travel and the State Department's International Travel website at www.state.gov/travel.
