Trip Itinerary

■ Day 1: Wednesday, October 14

We will depart SVSU as a group by motorcoach and head to Detroit airport for our flight to France. Travel details will be given at a later date.

■ Day 2: Thursday, October 15

(Paris, France • Embark ship)

We'll arrive today in Paris, France and begin our tour. A Grand Circle representative will meet us at the airport and escort us to the river ship. After you get settled in, you'll have the balance of the day to do as you wish after your overseas flight. Then before dinner, gather onboard for a Welcome Drink and your first Port Talk—a nightly feature of your River Cruise, designed as an opportunity for your Program Directors to prepare you for the following day's discoveries. (D)

■ Day 3: Friday, October 16

(Paris • Captain's Welcome Dinner)

After breakfast, we'll spend the morning exploring Paris, being introduced to both the city's classic highlights and more intimate neighborhoods. First, set off on a panoramic tour, witnessing the Eiffel Tower and Notre Dame from different perspectives. Then, get a sense of daily life in Paris during a walking tour of one of the city's residential neighborhoods. Finally, cap your tour with a drive along the famed Champs-Élysées, and witness the Arc de Triomphe (commissioned by Napoleon in 1806 and completed in 1836), which stands at the end of the Champs-Élysées at a large central roundabout where twelve elegant, tree-lined avenues converge. Connecting all these iconic landmarks is the banks of the Seine River - Paris's only UNESCO World Heritage Site. After lunch on board the ship you'll have the afternoon free for your own discoveries. After your Port Talk this evening, celebrate the beginning of your trip together with a Welcome Drink and Captain's Welcome Dinner in the dining room. (B/L/D)

■ Day 4: Saturday, October 17

(Paris • Montmartre • French language lesson • Pontoise)

After breakfast, explore Montmartre, one of the most famous and lively of the city's 20 arrondissements (districts) on a walking tour. Spend some free time following your included walking tour strolling the charming streets of this romantic neighborhood, and witness the famed Sacre Coeur Basilica, with its dramatic perch on the top of the Montmartre hill. Delight in the views of Paris below, and watch the street artists at work or browse the local shops for a special keepsake to bring home. After lunch on board the ship, enjoy your afternoon at leisure as we set sail this afternoon for the charming port town of Pontoise. After dinner onboard this evening, prepare yourself for the local connections you'll make on your Seine River Cruise during an Exclusive Discovery Series French lesson. (B/L/D)

■ Day 5: Sunday, October 18

(Pontoise • Optional Path of Van Gogh tour • Vernon)

After breakfast, enjoy a leisurely morning of sailing. Or, join us on an optional Path of Van Gogh tour of Auvers-sur-Oise.

You'll see the final resting place of Vincent van Gogh in the simple and quaint town that inspired much of his work. Begin your travels through the landscapes that inspired Impressionist painter Claude Monet on your way to Vernon. The Seine, the Epte, and the Oise—three French waterways referred to as the “Rivers of Light”—neighbor each other in this region. It was here that the artist and other Impressionists gathered to paint natural scenes that have become recognizable worldwide. Lunch is included on this tour. Otherwise, it will be served onboard in the ship's dining room. This afternoon will be at leisure with a scenic cruise. Along the way you may also choose to take part in an Exclusive Discovery Series event; an on board discussion about Monet, providing historical context for tomorrow's tour of Giverny. This evening we'll continue to sail towards Vernon. (B/L/D)

■ Day 6: Monday, October 19

(Vernon • Giverny)

After breakfast, we'll enjoy an excursion into the countryside to see the lovely landscapes that inspired Claude Monet. He first witnessed the village of Giverny while looking out a train window in 1883, and the unique light of the Seine Valley kept him in residence for 43 years. He stayed here until his death in 1926, and you'll find his grave in the family vault at the town's Romanesque church. We'll explore the artist's home and gardens, left by his son Michel to the Academie des Beaux-Arts in 1966 and now a museum dedicated to the great painter. The gardens have been replanted, and as you stroll through them, you'll see with your own eyes the landscapes that have graced countless Monet paintings. After lunch on board, you may return to Vernon and take part in a scavenger hunt throughout this classic French town—an unconventional way to get to know the area like a local. Your program director will provide a map and a list of three French items you must find on your own. After dinner you will have the rest of your evening as you wish. Perhaps you'll relax in the lounge and watch a live performance. (B/L/D)

■ Day 7: Tuesday, October 20

(Vernon • Les Andelys • Rouen)

We'll depart Vernon for Les Andelys after breakfast, arriving mid-morning for a walking tour of this quintessential French village on the banks of the Seine and take in views of Chateau Gaillard, an imposing fortress from the era of Richard the Lionheart. Then enjoy free time for independent exploration. Following lunch on board, we'll have the rest of the afternoon at your leisure. Today is another ideal time to borrow one of the ship's complimentary bikes to traverse the little town. Later this afternoon, we'll savor a tasting of classic French bread and cheese during an Exclusive Discovery Series event. During dinner on board, our ship begins sailing towards Rouen this evening. Upon arrival, we'll disembark and enjoy a night cap at a local guinguette, a traditional French bar and oftentimes dance hall. (B/L/D)

■ Day 8: Wednesday, October 21 (Rouen • Home-Hosted visit)

Later this morning join a local family for a sweet treat, as well as an opportunity to learn more about life in rural France during an Exclusive Discovery Series Home-Hosted Visit. After lunch on board this afternoon we'll disembark for a walking tour of Rouen, the capital of Normandy. This important French commercial center brimming with half-timbered houses has a distinguished history dating to pre-Roman times. However, it is more infamously known as the city where Joan of Arc was imprisoned, tried for heresy, and burned at the stake in 1431. Here you'll see the 14th-century Abbey where she was sentenced to death, and visit the Market Square where her execution took place. During your free time after your tour, you may want to visit the Joan of Arc Museum. Then, we'll stop to savor something sweet during a tasting in a chocolate shop. The rest of the afternoon is free for your own discoveries—ask your Program Director for recommendations. Dinner will be on board in the ship's dining room. (B/L/D)

■ Day 9: Thursday, October 22

(Rouen • Cooking demonstration • Honfleur)

This morning after breakfast you'll have free time for your own discoveries in Rouen—ask your Program Director for recommendations. We'll enjoy a relaxing afternoon of river cruising during which you can partake in an onboard Exclusive Discovery Series event: Learn how to prepare a few of France's culinary delights as your ship's chef demonstrates cooking techniques. Spend the rest of the day at leisure as you sail to Honfleur, your final port of call. En route, you'll pass under the town's 90-foot-tall Tancarville Bridge. Dinner tonight will coincide approximately with your arrival (depending on the tide). (B/L/D)

■ Day 10: Friday, October 23

(Honfleur • Normandy beaches)

This morning after breakfast we'll embark on a full-day tour of D-Day discoveries. The D-Day landings, code-named "Operation Overland," were the largest military campaigns in recorded history with the beaches of Normandy bearing the brunt of the invasion. Beginning at 6:30 am on June 6, 1944, nearly 7,000 landing craft hit the highly-fortified coastline. Those vessels carried tens of thousands of soldiers from the United States, Great Britain, Canada, and many other Allied nations, all of whom arrived determined to carry out General Eisenhower's order, "Full victory—nothing else." We'll enjoy lunch today at a local restaurant. This afternoon we'll continue to the American Military Cemetery. You'll see a monument honoring the fallen, and visit the cemetery of Colleville sur Mer, where 9,386 American soldiers were laid to rest. Then walk down to Omaha Beach for an up-close look at where the first Allied footing was achieved in German-occupied France. When they arrived on shore, the Allies were met with a deafening barrage of German gunfire. More than a thousand Allied troops died on Omaha Beach alone. We'll continue delving into D-Day's unprecedented history as we make our way to Pointe du Hoc—a site all Normandy veterans know well—where Allied forces scaled 328-foot cliffs as they sought to silence German artillery. Tonight dinner will be on board in the ship's dining room. (B/L/D)

■ Day 11: Saturday, October 24

(Honfleur • Optional Cliffs of Etretat tour • Captain's Farewell Dinner)

After breakfast, set off on a walking tour of the well-preserved port town of Honfleur, founded in the eleventh century. Situated on a Seine estuary opposite Le Havre, the town was once one of the most important ports in France. Many voyages of discovery were launched from here, including the journey of native son Samuel de Champlain—who went on to found Port Royal in Nova Scotia and the settlement of Quebec in Canada. After lunch on board in the ship's dining room, you'll have time to continue exploring Honfleur on your own. Or, you may choose to join a half-day optional excursion to the beautiful cliffs on the Normandy coast at Etretat. Tonight we'll gather with our new friends to share memories and toast to our enriching Seine River Cruise at the Captain's Farewell Dinner. Your evening will be at leisure, as the river ship remains in port tonight. (B/L/D)

■ Day 12: Sunday, October 25

(Honfleur • Disembark ship • Caen Peace Memorial Museum • Roissy-Charles De Gaulle Airport area)

After breakfast this morning, we'll disembark your ship and transfer to the Peace Memorial Museum in Caen, a state-of-the-art facility that vividly presents the events of World War II, including D-Day. It's an excellent way to put into context what you saw at the Normandy beaches. Lunch will be on your own today, as you will have the afternoon free for your own discoveries. Dinner will also be on your own this evening—ask your program director for local restaurant recommendations. This evening we'll transfer to Charles de Gaulle Airport, located 18 miles from the Paris city center, for a final night in France before your return flight. (B)

■ Day 13: Monday, October 26 (Honfleur)

After breakfast, transfer to the airport for your flight home. Additional travel details will be given at a later date. (B)
