About Our Program Provider

Our program provider is Road Scholar, formerly known as Elderhostel, Inc., a not-for-profit organization founded in 1975 to provide lifelong learning opportunities for adults. Their mission is to empower adults to explore the world's places, people, cultures and ideas, and in so doing to discover more about themselves. They offer nearly 8,000 educational adventures a year in more than 80 countries. Road Scholar was also our travel provider on our New York City, New Orleans, Southwest Parks and San Antonio trips which received excellent reviews. Our Yellowstone trip will be coordinated by the University of Montana Western.

Trip Itinerary

Day One: Sunday, August 10

We'll depart SVSU via motorcoach for our flights from Detroit to Jackson, Wyoming. We'll arrive in Jackson in the afternoon. After checking into the hotel, you'll have time to explore the town before an orientation and dinner at a downtown restaurant. (D)

Day Two: Monday, August 11

After breakfast at the hotel, you'll receive an introductory presentation about the Greater Yellowstone area which includes an overview of its unique ecosystem and wildlife. Then we're off to a docent-led tour of the National Museum of Wildlife Art. Lunch is included at the museum. In the afternoon, enjoy a Snake River scenic float where you'll see waterfowl, songbirds, shorebirds and possibly deer. In the late afternoon, we'll travel north via coach through Teton National Park and check into the Jackson Lake Lodge Cabins. Dinner will be in the Jackson Lake Lodge Dining Room. Your evening is free and might include wildlife viewing from the Lodge's back balcony overlook. (B/L/D)

Day Three: Tuesday, August 12

After a breakfast buffet in the Lodge dining room, we'll continue to explore Teton National Park with a morning boat trip across jewel-like Jenny Lake where a backdrop of the mighty Teton Peaks stuns the senses. Enjoy a moderate ½ mile hike to Hidden Falls, truly hidden and delightful. After sack lunches at String Lake, you'll learn more about the early settler's in the Jackson Hole area, visit the historic Chapel of Transfiguration, and Menor's Ferry. Dinner this evening will be in the Lodge dining room. You have another free evening to view wildlife or perhaps take a hike. (B/L/D)

Day Four: Wednesday, August 13

After a breakfast buffet in the Lodge dining room, we'll depart Teton National Park and journey north into Yellowstone country. You'll learn about the historic fires that swept through the area in 1988 and the role fire plays in the park's ecosystem. We'll continue along Yellowstone's wooded shoreline to the West Thumb Geyser Basin which showcases some of the parks deepest and more colorful hot springs. Climb westward from here and traverse 8,662 foot Craig's Pass. After a picnic lunch, we'll enter the Upper Geyser Basin, home to the world's largest concentration of geysers including Old Faithful. We'll check into the Old Faithful Snow Lodge and this evening enjoy dinner in the Lodge's dining room. The evening is free to enjoy a geyser walkabout or an ice cream. (B/L/D)

Day Five: Thursday, August 14

The day begins with a breakfast buffet in the Lodge's dining room. Then you'll enjoy an in-depth exploration with a naturalist of the Upper Geyser Basin. Witness hot springs, mud pots, fumaroles, and geysers with splendid names - Grand, Plume, Beehive, Castle, Lion and Doublet. Alternatively, enjoy a tour of historic Old Faithful Inn with an historian. After a picnic lunch, we'll head to the Firehole River Valley thermal basin which includes Midway Geyser Basin, Fountain Paint Pot and Firehole Lake Drive. Dinner tonight will again be in the spectacular Lodge dining room. In the evening, you can attend an optional ranger presentation. (B/L/D)

Day Six: Friday, August 15

After breakfast, we bid farewell to Old Faithful and travel to the Grand Canyon of Yellowstone, a massive and splendid wonder that is 20 miles long, up to 1,200 feet deep and up to 4,000 feet wide. We'll visit the Canyon's new Visitor Education Center which offers state-of-the-art geology exhibits and insight into the world of Yellowstone today as well as a journey into its volcanic past. After a picnic lunch in the Canyon area, go on an exploratory walk along the Canyon's South Rim to famed Artist Point Overlook which reveals stunning geology and views of spectacular Upper and Lower Falls. A late afternoon departure via Hayden Valley brings us to Yellowstone Lake's extensive 110-mile shoreline. This alpine lake extends 136 square miles and is so large that it often creates its own weather. Later in the day, we check into the stately Lake Hotel, which was placed on the National Register of Historic Places in 1991, its anniversary year. After dinner in the Lake Hotel dining room, you'll have free time to enjoy the hotel's spacious glassed-in sun room or take a leisurely stroll about the hotel grounds. (B/L/D)

Day Seven: Saturday, August 16

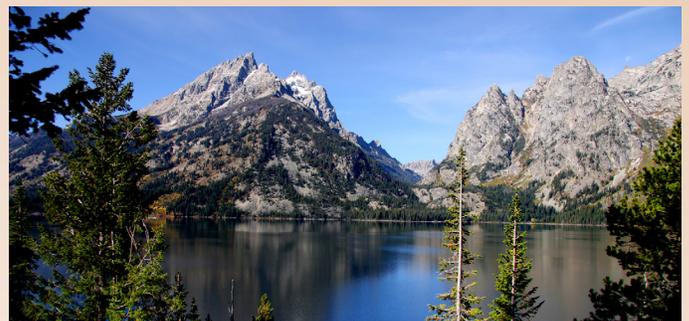

After a buffet breakfast in the hotel dining room, we'll travel north tracing the mighty Yellowstone River as it exits Yellowstone Lake to finally break out into Hayden Valley's vast, wide-open spaciousness. This area supports a myriad of grazing critters from small rodents to large ungulates. You may spot bison, coyote, elk, raven, grizzly bear and birds of prey. We then depart the Mammoth area via 8,859 foot Dunraven Pass. Lunch will be at the Mammoth Hot Springs Hotel dining room. After lunch you'll have a chance to walk the Mammoth terraces to observe travertine beauty. We'll visit the Albright Visitor Center and Museum, built by the U.S. cavalry during "Fort Yellowstone" times. Dinner tonight is a picnic in the park. (B/L/D)

Day Eight: Sunday, August 17

After a buffet breakfast in the hotel dining room, we leave the Lake Hotel for Jackson Hole and Grand Teton National Park. Enjoy this visual review with supplementary interpretation while retracing our journey through both national parks. We'll visit the Colter Bay Visitor Center and its Indian Arts Museum in Teton National Park. After a picnic lunch, we'll go on a relaxing two-mile lakeside hike which will be a fitting closure for our time in the Parks. We'll arrive in Jackson and stay once again at the 49er Inn. Our farewell dinner tonight will be in town at a Jackson restaurant. (B/L/D)

Day Nine: Monday, August 18

After an expanded continental breakfast at the hotel the coach will drive us to the Jackson airport for our flight back to Detroit. The coach will take you from the Detroit airport back to SVSU. (B)
